

Synopsis of School Structure

Day to day management of the school is mandated to staff who have a portfolio of responsibilities, inclusive of the Education Administrator and the Business Manager.

The College is an inclusive body of teachers and eurythmists, with participation from those who are prepared to make a commitment to the work of College, being a sensing into the cultural health of the school and the deepening of the pedagogical work.

In addition to the school's legal, management and spiritual structure below, the following consultative and/or working bodies within the school include:

Visually, the school's structure can be seen as represented by a chalice:

