Conditions of Entry

- It is important that your choice of Steiner education for your child be an informed choice. It is therefore a condition of entry that both parents (or custodial parent in the case of single parent families) attend a school tour or an annual Open Day and Fair prior to entry into the school.
- Parents attend parent-teacher evenings once a term.
- Children entering the school at Class 3 and higher may be required to participate in tutoring, curative Eurythmy or Extra Lesson, which may incur additional charges.
- Photographs of students & examples of work done by students may, from time to time, be included in publications, newsletters, and promotional material (including online marketing material) used by the school.
- A refundable bond of $550 is due upon acceptance into the school and is payable prior to the child commencing classes. The school does require written notice of a child exiting the school one term in advance.
- The school may authorise transport of students by teachers in their private cars when there are both compelling reasons to do so and it is impracticable or unreasonable to receive prior approval from a parent or guardian.
- Fees are charged in advance and due at the start of each term. If, due to a failure by you to pay fees and other amounts you are required to pay the school on time (payment default), we incur administrative costs and/or we deem it necessary to engage a debt collection agent and/or lawyers to assist in collecting outstanding sums, you must also pay and indemnify us in respect of, any such administrative costs, fees, commissions, costs or disbursements that we incur as a result of the payment default.
- The school may, at its discretion, refuse an enrolment at any time. Continued enrolment is dependent upon adherence to the school's policies and rules.
- The school may, at its discretion, cancel the enrolment of any student if they or their parent fail to adhere to school policies and procedures.
- Parents undertake to mitigate against the influences of visual and electronic media such as television, films, computers, mobile phones and electronic games amongst others.
- If the number of current applicants exceeds the number of places available at any time, the school will assign priority to applicants in accordance with the school's relevant Policies (see abstract on the parent's copy of this form).

Please note: Lodgement of this Application Form does not constitute enrolment, nor does it guarantee enrolment at a future date. Upon receipt of your application, the school's registrar will contact you to inform you of a place on the waiting list, or invite you for an initial interview. For students enrolling into the Primary or Secondary School, scholastic assessments may be requested by the interviewing teacher, along with work samples, school reports and contacts from previous schools. The initial interview may be followed by subsequent interviews. In certain circumstances the admission procedure may take up to one term.

I/We have read, understood and agree to the above conditions for admission to the Little Yarra Steiner School.

Privacy Statement

1. The School collects personal information, including sensitive information about pupils and parents or guardians before and during the course of a pupil's enrolment at the School. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the School to provide schooling for your child.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the School's legal obligations, particularly to enable the School to discharge its duty of care.
3. Certain laws governing or relating to the operation of schools require that certain information is collected. These include public health and child protection laws.
4. Health information about pupils is sensitive information within the terms of the National Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We ask you to provide medical reports about pupils from time to time.
5. The School from time to time discloses personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes. This includes to other schools, government departments, medical practitioners and people providing services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, sports coaches and volunteers.
6. If we do not obtain the information referred to above we may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of your child.
7. Personal information collected from pupils is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, pupil activities and other news is published in School newsletters, magazines and through our online presence.
8. Parents may request access to personal information collected about them and their children by contacting the School. Pupils may also request access to personal information about them. However, there may be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the pupil, or where pupils have provided information in confidence.
9. As you may know, the School from time to time engages in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the School's fundraising activities solely for that purpose should the School ever appoint such organisations. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
10. We may include your contact details in a class communication list. If you do not agree to this you must advise us now.
11. If you provide the School with the personal information of others (such as doctors or emergency contacts) we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the School and why, that they can access that information if they wish, and that the School does not usually disclose the information to third parties.
